- The two states with the highest poverty rates are Louisiana and Mississippi.

How the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Helps

One of the largest charitable organizations in the world, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul is an international, nonprofit, Catholic lay organization of about 800,000 men and women who voluntarily join together to grow spiritually by offering person-to-person service to the needy and suffering in 153 countries on five continents. Membership in the United States totals nearly 90,000 in more than 4,000 communities.

SVdP offers a variety of programs and services, including Home Visits, housing assistance, disaster relief, education and mentoring, food pantries, dining halls, clothing, assistance with transportation, prescription medication, and rent and utility costs. The Society also works to provide care for the sick, the incarcerated, and the elderly. No work of charity is foreign to the Society.

In 2021, SVdP provided more than $1.5 billion in tangible and in-kind services to those in need, made more than 1.5 million personal visits/contacts (homes, hospitals, prisons, and eldercare facilities), and helped more than 4.2 million neighbors in need, regardless of their race, religion, or national origin.
