

Turn the Page

Written by: Nicole Brocks

This is not the end
It's only the beginning
Don't fret over it ending or graduating
Dwell on starting a new chapter
Looking only forward
Towards the future
Though one chapter ends
A new one will begin again
So turn the page

Move towards the light
At the end of the Tunnel
Turn the page

A new book has begun
Write your future story
Step by step
Page by page
Never forgetting those who
Have helped along the way
Always looking forward
Never backward
God and Love
Will guide your steps
Turn the page

Day by day
The light will grow brighter
With each page turn
And you will see
Your future story unfold
Like a caterpillar
Turning into a butterfly
Your future story will unfold
Turn the page

Like the poet
So eloquently writes
Work step by step
In your future story
Turn the page

Like the artist
Paints the painting
Turn the page

And you will see
Your future so clearly
Turn the page

Like the chef
Makes food so good
You can taste it
You will one day
Taste your future story
Turn the page...
